J. A. Bennet, Esq.
195 Florida,
Dear Sir,
I have great pleasure in testifying to the efficacy of Alcock's Porous Plasters.
In 1876 I was attacked by Acute Rheumatism in this city, for which the three Doctors who attended me could do absolutely nothing.
After being in bed for 9 months, unable to move any of my limbs, I was advised by a friend to try Alcock's Porous Plasters. I did so, and in 15 days I was completely cured, returning to my work on the City of Buenos Aires Improvements for Mr J C Simpson.
This fact is known to hundreds of persons here. You are at perfect liberty to publish this, and I trust it will induce others similarly afflicted to try them; they are certain to be benefited by them.
I remain,
Very truly yours,

MR. EGERTON'S REPORT

The chief charm we find in Mr Egerton's report on this country is its fairness and comprehensiveness, and in sketching his commercial portrait of the Plate, he avoids those worlds of figures, the rank vegetation of a purely Custom House mind, making the groundwork of his picture the people, soil and products, in preference to those interminable figures which too often daub the pages of every Blue-book report.

There is such an absence of caricature in the paper before us that, as we get through the pages we are put into good humour, and at our ease, to find that a foreigner occupying so representative a trust has found in this country much to recommend and something to admire. Mr Egerton writes on this country as he finds it, and freed from those influences of prejudice that so often throw impediments in the way of a fair appreciation.

After giving a short sketch of the history of the Provincial Bank, which he takes from Dr. Garrigos's work, he pays the following high tribute to Ex-President Avellaneda:—

"Under these circumstances of trial, with the commerce of Buenos Ayres prostrated and that of the interior totally collapsed, President Avellaneda commenced his Administration, which his statesmanlike intellect guided through every kind of peril, and which has been the most successful, from the point of view of progress, of any which this country has known.

"He began his Presidency with the declaration that nothing should induce his Government to break faith with the foreign creditor, and that the country would support every privation rather than fail in this respect.

"The short civil war which followed did not mend matters, and no recovery of trade took place. Payment of the notes of the National Bank in specie was suspended, and they were soon driven out of circulation, and the Exchange Office of the Province was also closed.

"Meanwhile the Government did not stop its public works, such as the railway to Tucuman, notwithstanding the constant falling-off of its revenue; but its difficulties were increasing, and though on four occasions it obtained advances in 1876 from the Provincial Bank for pressing necessities—the autumn of that year found it with nothing in hand and the coupon of the Murietta Loan to meet."

Reserving the privilege of extracting more at length many of Mr Egerton's remarks on immigration and its elements, on the woods and forests of the country, and the mining industry, of which no other diplomatic report have we seen any notice made, we shall conclude our cursory glance by the following extract, which touches a point of much interest to many of our readers, both here and in Europe—

"English gentlemen with a few thousand pounds who may be thinking of trying their fortunes in farming, may be assured that money, in the purchase of stock and land, goes further here than elsewhere, and should give a far larger return; but they should also remember that the increased percentage represents a supposed risk and insecurity, which certainly has existed hitherto, and which it would be absurd to suppose had disappeared altogether; though I am happy to admit that order is increasing and the power of Government is establishing itself in this country. The increased percentage represents also the abandonment of many national habits and associations, and the adoption of an exceedingly, and perhaps unnecessarily, rough kind of living. It must be remembered, too, that much strength of character is required whilst living amongst a foreign community, to avoid adopting their failings, which are frequently the first things observed and learnt by the stranger, while the good qualities are far less easy to copy. I have seen several Englishmen who have adopted the barbarous habits and even dresses of the gaucho, but not one who had acquired the latter's graceful courtesy and dignity of manner.

"The question is, therefore, the amount of sacrifice a man is willing to make, or that his circumstances may compel him to make, in order to secure a high return on his capital.

"Agriculture is, I think, about to extend itself greatly here, and I am acquainted with former sheepfarmers who now possess large incomes by letting their land for tillage to Italians and Basques. The soil is very open, and wants little working; it is generally a rich, dark-coloured alluvial loam, of good depth; below it there is often a bed of hardened rock-like clay, called 'tosca,' and water is everywhere to be found near the surface.

"The white mulberry and silkworm do well here, but as yet the Italians have not turned their attention to the silk industry.

"While alluding to the resources of this fertile land, and the opening it offers to immigration, it is difficult to over-estimate the importance of the destruction of the Pampa tribes, and the extension of the military frontier to Rio Negro, as regards the development of those resources.

"This was effected by General Roca in the two last years of President Avellaneda's Administration."

From the foregoing short extracts it will be seen that whilst Mr Egerton points to many defects and drawbacks, he takes a cheering view of the country. We admire his report all the more since he writes evidently under the yoke of no theory, and judges many things by his mind's eye—the evidence of much observation and unquestionable ability. Neither has he attempted to determine any speciality of National character by tracing to us the influence of cows or millions of fat sheep; he touches with the pen of a Montesquieu or Rousseau those physical conditions amid which many of our severest National tendencies find, perhaps—shall we confess it?—too rapid a development.

PAUL AND VIRGINIA.

Tuesday evening a novelty appeared on the Buenos Ayrean boards destined to leave a lasting impression on those who, in defiance of 'rude Boreas', thronged to the Colon to witness Victor Masse's opera of Paul and Virginia.

This opera, after considerable delay (like that of l'Africana) was produced for the first time in Paris in November 76. The libretto, by Jules Barbier and Michel Carre, bears throughout the impress of their fame and frequently attains to good poetry.

In the music to this opera, Masse has achieved success, inasmuch as beyond the melody and orchestration he has remained faithful to the beautiful book of our childhood; portraying with a modesty that never goes beyond the true, in strains we feel sure that Paul and Virginia would have sung, and that the negroes on the plantations actually sing. The overture is a weird prelude to the music we constantly hear thoughout the first and second tableaux—music of a plaintive and dreamy character, which, however, in the third act developes into dramatic passages of great beauty, pathos and power, reaching the height of a grand opera.

The first act. Marguerite's House in the Isle of France, discovers Marguerite (Mlle. Merle), mother of Paul, with Mm. Letour (Mlle. Gregoire) discoursing of their children. The duo 'J'aime a reparler de leurs premiers ans' was prettily sung, to which follows the air for Domingo (an old slave) 'N'envoyez pas le jeune maitre'. In this M. Mauge won the sympathy of the audience, and again in act second 'L'oisean s'envole La bas, La bas' he showed how completely he sustained his difficult role.

The melody of 'L'oiseau' is purity itself and the gem of the opera

We can safely assert that a more masterly interpretation is impossible, and M. Mauge obtained a well-merited encore.

To return to the first act; the composer gives us a fine choral effect, in perspective, 'Un navire entre dans le port, Un navire qui vient de France', immediately followed by a storm, which admits of the entry of Paul and Virginia, gracefully grouped under the shelter of a plantain leaf. In the ensuing duo when they interrogate one another as to the origin of their mutual affection, the gifted musician has caught the inspiration held out to him by the picture of innocent love and given us music in which we feel the very souls of Paul and Virginia discourse, so tender and fresh is the melody.

Paul and Virginia enter with Mealа to ask pardon of her master, and this gives rise to one of the most rythmical and best sung airs for soprano 'Pardonnez lui.'

The next scene discloses a room in Marguerite's house. Virginia receives news that she must leave for France, and here occurs the 'l'Oiseau s'envole' already referred to. In this act Paul learns from his mother's lips the misfortune of his birth and consequent obstacle to his union with Virginia. We must not overlook the acting at this point between Paul and Sainte Croix, as very finished, both singing in good style, especially in the 'Mon Dieu prenez y garde.'

The forest scene which follows is fully up to the requiremsnts of a tropical scene, with its rich foliage and dense fringiness. Here once more we are treated to the fine effect of a distant chorus—'Un navire quitte le port.'

Mdlle. Leroux has an occasion for displaying her voice, and she did so, in 'Chantez oiseaux, chantez encoré,' acting the Virginia statuesquely and chaste. The calm grace with which she reposes, dreaming of Paul, and in sleep murmuring his name, whilst the distant chorus is heard through the forest, is perhaps the most exquisite tableaux of this lyric poem, and calls to mind the lines to Ianthe—

To such as see thee not, my words are weak,
To such as gaze on thee, what language can they speak?

Paul, in the following act sang in his very best style the verses of the letter beginning 'Chére mére vous m'avez dit.'

We note in this opera the excellence of the recitations, being neither tedious nor commonplace, and aided by some very good instrumentation.

In this, the last act, Virginia (now in France) appears to Paul in a vision and in fancy they exchange longings to re-meet. Thus, we have Virginia singing 'Que ma chanson vers toi s'envole o doux ame que j'ai quitte' and Paul feels instinctively that Virginia will return to him.

The next and last tableau is a 'chef d'œuvre' of scenic art. In it we have the shipwreck, with the vessel in pieces on the rocks, and waves rolling with realistic effect on the shore which has received the drowned Virginia.

One word of praise where it is due: Mlle. Paola Marie sang and acted Mealа with an earnestness and fire which further proves the versatile talent of the charming 'artiste.'

As the curtain fell the actors, who had been repeatedly called before the curtain earlier in the evening, were enthusiastically summoned, but this time it was an ovation to which they thrice responded.

The Viceroy of India telegraphs that the Ameer's troops who were defeated by Ayoob Khan have collected at Khelat-i-Ghilzai, whither reinforcements are marching from Cabul. The Ameer, with troops, has encamped outside Cabul.

A telegram from Tunis states that France is resolved to appoint a Commission of Inquiry into the occurrences on the occasion of the occupation of Sfax, and has invited the Commanders of the Italian and British ironclads to take part in it.

A fire broke out yesterday morning at a petroleum factory at Aubervilliers, near Paris, and proved to be of a very destructive character. Our Correspondent says the loss is estimated at about twenty thousand pounds.

The Queen left Osborne for Edinburgh last night, and will hold a review of Scottish volunteers to-morrow, proceeding to Balmoral on Friday.

The Duke of Edinburgh yesterday visited the Clyde, and inspected the training ship Cumberland. He was afterwards entertained at lunch on board the new Cunard steamer Servia by Mr John Burns, Chairman of the Cunard Company.

terday, said he regretted that the Irishmen of Leeds had attempted, though unsuccessfully, to find a candidate to oppose him. Many of the pledges given by the Liberals at the General Election had not yet been redeemed; but that was because the present system of conducting Parliamentary business was defective. The system would have to be altered, and when the time came for doing it he hoped his constituents would support the Government.

The receipts on account of Revenue from the 1st of April, 1881, when there was a balance of £5,923,662, to August 20th, 1881, were £30,282,487, against £29,371,000 in the corresponding period of the preceding financial year, which began with a balance of £3,273,428. The net expenditure was £33,730,065, against £32,542,078 to the same date in the previous year. The Treasury balancet on August 20th amounted to £2,594,966, and at the same date in 1880 to £3,375,923.

Telegrams from many parts of the country show that the weather yesterday was generally very bad, rain falling heavily for several hours, while in the Midlands there was a sharp thunderstorm. The frequent recurrence of rain is having a serious effect on the harvest; agricultural operations are much retarded, and in many instances considerable damage has been done to hay and the cereai crops. The Archbishop of Canterbury has written to the Bishop of London, enclosing a form of prayer which his Grace suggests should be offered up for favourable weather.

At a meeting of the Land League which was held in Dublin yesterday, Mr Sexton, M.P, who presided, said that whatever there might be of good in the Land Act was due to the agitation which had been carried on, but before the Act could be taken into calm consideration by the Irish people, the principal conditions were that all evicted tenants must be restored to their holdings, and all prisoners under the Coercion Act released. The League resolved to publish all the speeches of Michael Davitt since his return from America.

Mr T. Leader won the Badminton Plate, the opening event of the York August Meeting, with Gaydene, and Mr R. Jardine took the Zetland Stakes with Nectar, after a dead heat with Sir J. D. Astley's Zanoni. Mr Vyner's colt by Cambollo—Lady of Lyons walked over for the Twenty-fifth Biennial. Lord Stamford won the Convivial Stakes with Geheimniss, Major Stapylton the Lonsdale Plate with Scaramouch, Mr J. Lowther the Bradgate Park Stakes with Bar Sinister, and Crawfurd the Yorkshire Oaks with Thebais.

Depression continued to prevail in the Stock Markets, with the exception of American Stocks, which showed signs of recovery. Consols fell ⅛, to 99¾ 99⅞ for money, and 1-16 for the account, to 99 13-16 99 15-16. Among Home Railways, a further advance of 1½ took place in Tilbury and Southend, but in other descriptions a decline of ¼ to ⅜ was noted. The only instance of improvement in Foreign Government Bonds was a rise in Spanish. But Argentine, Peruvians, and Egyptian were sold. Gold to the value of £100,000 was withdrawn from the Bank for export.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The French mail steamer Niger sails this afternoon. Mails close at one o'clock sharp.

The National and Provincial Governments, the Diplomatic and Consular Corps, the Municipality, the Police authorities, the Itulians, French, Spaniards, Orientales, and all the other nationalities in town will be represented to-morrow in the public demonstration of respect to the memory of the late President Garfield. Mourning garb is not obligatory. The procession will start from the Plaza Victoria as the Cabildo clock strikes one.

Dn Juan Carlos Gomez, President of the Press Committee, has addressed a letter to General Osborn, United States Minister, begging him to accept to-morrow's demonstration as a mark of sympathy and respect for the Great Republic, the Home of Liberty. The Typographical Society will be represented in the procession by 40 of its members.

The news from Europe by the R.M.S. Douro and Valparaiso is so varied and voluminous that we cannot manage to find space for a quarter of it in detail, so we must epitomise some of it here. It rained tremendously in the United Kingdom last month, and did great damage to the harvest. Dr. Bradley, Rector of Oxford University, has been appointed Dean of Westminster, Dr. Tauner, the 40-days-fast humbug, is still alive, he himself having set afloat the report of his death to keep his honoured name well before the public. The Queen prorogued Parliament on the 27th ult. The only important thing Her Majesty had to say to 'My Lords and Gentlemen' was that England will not interfere in the row in Afghanistan. A new party has sprung up in Ireland—the Conservative Nationalists—who advocate giving the Land Bill a fair trial. The King of Italy's visit to Berlin is uncertain. Her Majesty has named six new Peers of Great Britain. Two Russian officers caught taking plans of Austrian fortresses. The Piedmontese Gazette says that negotiations for the removal of the Papal Court to Malta, in case of danger, have been renewed. The fires in Spain, now known to be the work of the Socialists, are increasing terribly.

Crowds of visitors called on ex-President Avellaneda yesterday to express their indignation at the assault made on him on Thursday. The National Government has taken prompt steps in the matter and ordered Colonel Solano to be imprisoned pending an inquiry by the military authorities, without prejudice to the action of the civil law. This case is but a less tragic edition of the terrible one at Washington, the cause being almost the same. Ex-President Avellaneda must feel deeply gratified at yesterday's demonstration of respect to him. Men of all political parties crowded his house: The President of the Republic, the Governor, Senators and Deputies, the Lord Mayor, the Judges; in fact, all the most distinguished men in the country were there. Perhaps the most significant feature of the 'levee' was the great number of military officers who called to assure the ex-President of their regret and indignation that any man wearing the Argentine uniform should have insulted one to whom the country owes so much. The public will be glad to learn that Dr. Avellaneda was not hurt, as the German gentleman who first interfered was in time to prevent the intended violence.

We went to see the Grau company for the first timo on Thursday night, and were charmed beyond measure. Madame Durand was not a patch on Mdlle. Leroux, and our nigger friend, the baritone, is one of the sweetest singers we have ever heard. No one should miss hearing this excellent French company. One of the ablest of our large staff of musical reporters has favoured us with a critique which will be found in another column.

We received yesterday by the mail some most edifying treatises on Mormonism, printed in Spanish, and sent to us by a former resident of the Plate, now in Salt Lake, and owner of more wives than he knows how to manage. He says that a Mormon mission will be sent to the River Plate shortly; meanwhile, he desires us to distribute the books amongst our friends. We feel nervous about becoming a Mormon missionary in this way, but should any of our subscribers be polygamically inclined, they can have a look at the books in our office, but not take them away, as we have assigned them a place in our museum.

The Chief of Police has ordered a squad of policemen to be put on guard every night at the Plaza Once, to prevent any person or persons making free with the materials of the Exhibition building.

A lot of sugar from Tucuman was burnt last week in the railway waggons while on its way down to Cordoba.

People whose pleasure keeps them out of doors till after midnight are now tempted to think, even on the finest nights, that it has been raining cats and dogs, such are the numbers of these quadrupeds which infest the streets. The greatest caution is needed to avoid a piece being taken from one's legs or pantaloons, as the half starved brutes lie in wait in doorways for unwary passers by.

The cost of finishing the City Improvement Works is estimated at 131 millions of paper dollars. Mr Bateman is certain to give us the Works properly done, and this certainty is well worth the money, or more.

The Cattle Show at Palermo will open on next Thursday.

The Southern Railway issues tickets to-day, available until Tuesday, at greatly reduced fares, to meet the exigencies of the Italian fetes which will come off to-morrow. A good opportunity for a trip campwards for two days for city folk, and vice-versa for our camp friends. See advertizement.

There is a bobbery amongst the tender-hearted 'vecinos' of San Fernando, owing to a boy on board one of the war vessels there getting a touch of the cat the other day, by order of his superior officer, for some offence against discipline.

The new ironclad Admiral Brown is expected to arrive at Montevideo about the 14th of next month, and the torpedo-boat Maipu also.

The smallest book in the world, so far as is known, is a book recently discovered in Florence, Italy. It is an 'Office de la Vierge,' printed at Venice, by Juntas, 1549. It consists of 256 minute pages, printed on a single sheet of ordinary book-size, red and black letters, and bound in red morocco with gilt edges raised bands or fillets, the chargings and clasps in silver. The size of this little typographical 'chef d'œuvre' is two inches in length by an inch and a quarter in breadth.

A charming young lady of San Nicolas tried the other day the oft-repeated effort to blow out a kerosene lamp without being blown up She failed, and whoever marries her will have to take her minus an eye.

A coasting vessel called the 'Saint Michael the Archangel,' which had been missing for some weeks, and was considered to have touched bottom somewhere, sailed into the Riachuelo on Thursday. She was on shore off Martin Garcia all the time.

The postponed Lujan Races are down again for next Monday. We hope the rain won't come down again on them. It looked like it yesterday.

There will be Mass, and Sermon in English, to-morrow at San Roque Church, at 12 o'clock as usual.

Another attraction of the Continental Exhibition will be Chess, Whist and Billiard tournaments. Why not get up Lawn Tennis or Aunt Sally? Whist!

River Plate sentinels are rather quick to use their firearms. On the heels of the sad mistake at the Penitentiary the other night, when a sentry shot his own corporal, comes another of the same kind, but not fatal, which occurred in the prison of Mercedes. The night was dark and windy, and the sentry outside suddenly saw the shadow of a man's head inside one of the cell windows, which closed with a bang at the same moment. The soldier fired and the guard 'turned out' double quick. On enquiry it was found that the head at the window was that of one of the prisoners, who had climbed up to shut it, as the night was so cold and gusty. The bullet whistled past his ear. A rather narrow escape.

The National Senate did some work on Thursday and finally, passed the Consolidation Bill, voted $95,000 for repair of Telegraphs voted a lot of supplementary credits, and wound up by throwing out a couple of proposed railway extensions in the Interior.

Much regret was expressed yesterday at the news of the death of Mr. Loedel, the well known bookseller at Montevideo, who has succumbed to a long and painful illness.

The speeches at the American meeting on Thursday will be found in oar Supplement. General Osborn's and Consul Baker's were much admired: they spoke to all hearts.

Charles Dickens, Emperor of Martin Garcia, was arrested on Thursday, for operating on the head of a man camed Morelli with an iron bar. The Emperor has hitherto been known about town as a harmless lunatic, but his constitution appears to be changing, at least so poor Morelli says.

The earthworks of the Jujuy Railway Extension are now finished to 21 kilometres north of Tucuman, and the laying of the rails will soon commence. There are 1,000 navvies at work.

There is another meeting of the Society for Preventing Cruelty to Animals called for to-night, and all who sympathise with the movement are earnestly invited to be present at the American Church, 7½ o'clock is the hour.

The Rosario papers report the most astounding case on record. A 'vigilante' found a full bottle of Paats's best gin in the street, near the Olympic Theatre, and instead of draining it absolutely handed it over to his superior to be restored to the owner. The Commissary looked at him as if he had seven heads, saying to himself—'The next thing this thoroughly honest fellow will restore will be an umbrella.'

A fine of 100 patacons has been imposed on the Silex for omitting to deliver the mail-bag at Uruguay, on her last trip from Concordia to this port.

The dead body of a child was taken from the sewer in Calle Venezuela yesterday. A 'vigilante' took charge of it. Another infanticide doubtless. The crime is frightfully prevalent of late.

VALUE OF PAPER-MONEY.

Until the evening of 24th Sept. the rate will be—25360 cents Prov. Bank m/c. 1$ gold.
EMILIO CIVIT.

ON 'CHANGE.

	Sept. 23rd.
Patacons	25.55
Cedulas A	99½
National Bank Shares	126¼
Gas Shares	1050

The gold market which ruled so very hard yesterday was somewhat easier to-day, and the people who wanted to buy so much at afternours yesterday found sellers superabundant to-day. The effort therefore to put up gold on the strength of some private telegrams from Chile has failed; the market is not to be disturbed by every message that private parties think proper to send over the wires, and parties who wanted to sell large amounts at 25.60 were unable to do so.

The consolidation law, or in other words the Romero project, just passed by the Senate will give the Prov. Bank fresh power to control the gold market and sustain the value of its paper. It is said that by virtue of this law the Hard Dollar and other coupons will be payable next January in gold. The importance of this consolidation law seems to be overlooked by many; it will supply the market with 15 millions pats fresh money, and will fill the coffers of the Provincial Bank.

Gold opened at 25.60 cash and closed at 25.55. For the end of the month to close the liquidation there is the same squeeze as last month. They say on 'Change that the Bolsa always owes the market four millions pats gold, and month after month this heavy balance is passed over. Sales were made to-day for January at 25.50.

Cedulas ruled much firmer, and there is a strong conviction that next month the 8 per cents will be at a premium. Some very strong parties are now buying, and as the stock is beyond question the best in the market, it is the easiest to carry.

Three sales of Gas Shares made, one lot at 1,950, another at 2,000, and another at 1,950; and at afternours 46 shares sold at 1,950.

Nat. Bank shares opened firm, and closed weak; the speculation in this stock continues as strong as ever, still we note that the sales during business hours show a falling off. There was great talk on Change about a lot of shares said to have been embargoed by the courts, but the ring is full of all such news, although we cannot well see how any decree of the court can affect the market price; shares opened cash at 127, and closen 126, sales 288. For end Sept. 2950 sold, opening at 127⅛, and closing at 126¼. For October 31st 1950 sold, opening at 128¼, selling up to 129, although not marked on board, and closing at 128. Total day's sales 5188.

Another sale of new wool on contract was reported on Change, 5000 ar, from the well known Fernandez estancia, Chascomus, at 75, bought by a city barraquero.

The mails per Douro and Valparaiso were delivered to-day; advices from London report a continued drain on the London market for gold for the U. States and for South America; 490,000 sovs. were taken from the Bank on 23rd Aug. for South America, but the Douro only brought £50,000 for this market. Argentine stocks seem to be well maintained; we note that Ensenada Railway Shares have risen to £9¾, some months ago they could be bought at 6. Eastern Argentine are a little under par.

All the knowing people say that Ensenada will be the Capital of the Province, and a very large purchase of land ont there is talked of. We know of 110 squares owned by an Englishman for which 4,000 m/c per square was offered and refused.

The sales at the ring were—
For cash 35,300 25.60–55
For Sept. 24th 10,000 25.60
For Sept. 30th 124,000 25.60
For Oct. 31st 100,000 25.55–60
For Nov. 30th 45,000 25.55
For Dec. 31st 10,000 25.55
For Jan. 31st, 1882, 100,000 25.50
Sales, 424,300.

Cedulas—
For cash A 18,900 99½–½
For Sept. 30th A 50,000 99–½–½
For Oct. 31st A 88,000 99½–½
Sales, 156,900.

Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 288 shares 127–126½–126
For Sept. 30th 2,950 shares 127½–½–127–126 to 126½–½
For Oct. 31st 1,950 shares 128½–½–129–128½ to 128
Sales, 5,188.

Old Gas Co. Shares—
For cash 90 shares at $1,950–2,000–1,950

The market at afterhours ruled somewhat excited, Cedulas and gold very firm, and Bank shares, strange to say, very weak. Some of the very strong brokers refuse to have anything to do with shares save for cash, and we note parties that used to be head and ears in shares are now buying on long time all the Cedulas that are offering. Gold shows no animation, the bears and bulls can put the market neither up nor down; the Government broker sold at afterhours 50,000 pats cash at 25.60, another broker tried to follow suit, but it could not be done at the same rate. The probabilities are that many merchants have secured more gold for the end of the month than they require and will have to pass it on or throw it up.

Merchants report business much improving and large orders coming in from the camp; it is about time.

It appears there was fresh news in to-day from the U. States, giving hides down ¼ a cent.

A mail will be made up on Monday for New York for Pascal, to catch her in Montevideo.

Shares dropped to 125½ cash, 126½ for end of month, and 128 for end October, sellers all round.

Exchange has become impossible owing to the rates in Montevideo being 51⅛–⅞, which, taking bills on Montevideo here at ⅜ discount gives an exchange on London of 50d gold. There are at present few takers for all the exchange offering.

The Pacific steamer Valparaiso made a splendid run down from Rio, and we are requested to state she left 5 hours after Douro, passed her following day and arrived in Montevideo the day before her.

The Provincial Bank to-day had very large applications for discount, the board discounted close on 6 millions. We hear that the Bank will not negotiate the Nat. Consol Bonds, not requiring the money. It will hold the bonds and collect the interest.

Mr Cadmus, one of our leading exporters, who arrived back from Europe was enveloped in friends when he enterrd the Bolsa.

We are happy to say Dr del Viso, Minister of Interior, is now quite recovered and attended the Government House to-day.

The Toro sails to-morrow for Bahia Blanca, The Villarino for Patagones sails on 28th inst.

The Sales at afterhours were—

It was said on 'Change that next month Mr Duffield will arrive from Rio to take charge of the new English Bank.

Mr Richard Hammond, of Pavon, reports the camps up there in splendid condition, land dear and not to be had, and no sales of new wool in that quarter as yet. The people in Pavon are about to apply to the Post Master to establish a Post Office there.

Circulars from Messrs A Hopmann & Co. were given round to-day, announcing that they have been named the agents in this Republic of the Commercial Union Assurance Co., London; all the Insurance Companies in this market are now doing a good business.

The English papers bring the following:—
"The Postmaster General has received notice from the Royal Mail Steam-packet Co. that, commencing with the 1st Sept. next, they will despatch an extra steamer from Southampton on the 1st of each month, to call at Lisbon, Pernambuco, Bahia, and Rio de Janeiro. Extra mails will be sent by these steamers to the places in question until further notice.

"The Gourlay Frauds.—The settlement of the claims against the Oswaldtwistle Local Board, arising out of the frauds of William Gourlay, the former clerk, and amounting to nearly £40,000, was arranged on Monday afternoon, at a meeting of a committee of the Local Board, and representatives from the Bondholders' Association. On behalf of the bondholders the deputation accepted the offer of the Local Board of £15,000 in discharge of the whole of the claims. Before the money can be paid it will be necessary to obtain the approval of the ratepayers and also powers from Government."

"Exchange.—Since our last report on 6th inst. our market has been very quiet, owing to limited sales of produce.

"On 19th inst. Banks opened rates at 22½, but Commercial bills, being scarce, were readily passed at 22⅝ and 11/16, with some exceptional transactions at 22¾; since then rates have been weaker, Banks on 12th r duced their rate to 22⅝, at which, however, little business has been done, and Commercial bills have been negotiated at 22 7/16, ½ and 9/16.

"Our market closes slightly firmer at 22⅝ Bank, and 22 9/16 Commercial paper.

"On Paris the rates have been 423 to 425 reis per franc Bank, and 418 to 422 reis for other paper.

The Revista Mercantil, in its fortnighly review of the market, states that if its hopes of a speedy improvement have not been entirely fulfilled, at all events there is increased animation observable to-day. Many transactions have been done in wine, for which there is a growing demand. Several important sales of refined sugar have been effected, and this article is rising in price in proportion to the decrease in stock. Very little change to be remarked in other merchandise, nor is there likely to be any variation until the general state of trade improves. It would be imprudent to overload the market with merchandise, and merchants cannot be too cautious about sending orders for goods, as it would only tend to bring about another crisis. This is the first year, we may say, that this country will make a respectable show of agricultural produce, and henceforward we may expect a rapid progress in this all important industry. Wine, sugar and wheat—articles unknown in this country a few years ago—will this season occupy prominent positions in this market, and will go far to prove the general advancement of the interior. The export trade has been nil in consequence of the very rainy weather.

To the Editor of the Standard
Sir

We see by a letter published in your issue of to-day's date and signed 'a resident of Lomas' that he complains of the irregularity in the running of the trains on the Southern Railway, since the new time-table came in force, as daily passengers by th se trains we can fully corroborate your correspondent's statements.

We notice also that the Southern Railway employees lay all the blame on the Ensenada Railway for the frequent delays, and although this in general may be correct, still we would wish to ask the manager of the Southern Railway, if the delay of the 6.5 p.m. train from Plaza Constitucion at Lomas yesterday, 23rd, of from 30 to 35 minutes is also occasioned by the Cmara, or if the telegraph is not working orderly. There must be mismanagement when, with crossings at not less than ten minutes distance, a train is kept waiting at a station for thirty-five minutes.

By inserting the above you will oblige

Cien leguas de Campo.
En Santiago del Estero
Orden del Exmo Gobierno de esa Provincia
Con derecho a ubicar donde se quiera
Primera vez que se vende con esta condicion
SIN BASE ALGUNA
Venta a Plazos
En nuestra casa San Martin No 51
El Miercoles 5 de Octubre
A las 2 en punto de la tarde
Venderemos al mejor precio y a plazos, por orden del Exmo. Gobierno de la Provincia de Santiago del Estero y con acuerdo de su Legislatura.
Cien leguas de campo, divididas en lotes de a cuatro, teniendo sin embargo el comprador derecho a tomar desde una hasta las cien.
El Gobierno de Santiago ha sido, como lo de cimos, autorizado por su Legislatura a vender esta gran zona de tierra, pero a objeto de facilitar la operacion, la venta se hara sin otro plano que el de la Provincia, por cuanto se da el derecho de ubicar donde se quiera, dentro de los limites de la misma.
Con este derecho cualquiera persona que este en el secreto de la situacion de un campo inmediato a la plaza principal, a las quintas contiguas a la ciudad o por sus alrededores, puede pedir su ubicacion allí mismo, como tambien los que conozcan donde existen los que puedan tener pastos de primera calidad aguas permanentes, montes, etc.
El Gobierno de Santiago no pretende con esta operacion hacer un negocio.—Su objeto se limita a fomentar el progreso de su Provincia, poniendo la tierra al alcance de todo el mundo, llamando asi a su centro la formacion de grandes establecimientos y la poblacion consiguiente.
A cada comprador se le dara un boleto con un numero de orden y en el cual se fijara un termino para pedir la ubicacion, de manera que el primera que compre, sea el primero que elija y asi succesivamente.
Siendo la venta dentro del territorio de Santiago, ningun otro gobierno iniciara protesta a guna, lo que importara garantizar un titulo perfecto y libre de todo gravamen, habiendose resuelto que las escrituras se otorguen ante de oficina de un escribano de esta capital.
El pago se hara mitad al contado al estenderse la escritura y el resto a 6 y 12 meses en garantia del mismo campo.
En resumen—Jamas se ha puesto en venta un lote de tierra en iguales condiciones y desde hoy el publico debe preocuparse de averiguar en que punto pedir la ubicacion del numero de leguas que necesita para la plantacion de establecimientos de campo, ingenios etc.
No obstante de tener, aqui en Buenos Aires un apoderado general el Gobierno de Santiago nosotros daremos mas pormenores en nuestra casa San Martin 51.

51—SAN MARTIN—51
El MARTES 27 de Setbre.
A las 2 de la tarde.
El dia señalado venderemos por cualquier precio y por orden y cuenta exclusiva del inteligente cabañero Don Maximo de Elia, un lote de 4 unicos toros que elijio personalmente despues de recorrer 11 de las mas reputadas cabañas de la Gran Bretaña.
En su carta de remision nos dice:—
"El 'groom' que va cuidando los animales entregara a Vd. los 'pedigrees' en verdadera forma.
"Creo conocer bien a mi tierra y la competencia del gremio de hacendados, y me parece que las 4 piezas que mando satisfacaran completamente sus exigencias. Ignoro los animales que se hayan presentado al remate despues de mi salida, pero mientras yo permanecia allí, puedo garantirles que jamas se han vendido toros ni de la sangre ni del tipo de los que mando.
"Tengo la conciencia que perderé dinero, pero la tengo tambien que no he perdido el ojo en lo vacuno por mas que por aqui hay muchas razas de diversos generos, que llaman hoy la atencion.
"En fin, Vds. veran los animales; creo que es lo mejor que ha ido por la tierra."
Cuyo detalle es el siguiente—
LORD DE BREOS No. 2—Rosillo nacido 8 de Octubre 1880, criado por Hussey Vivian, hijo del toro Lord Calcot 2°, No. 34,501, y de la vaca Tripaway y por el toro Duke of Tawsley No. 23,387.

THE AMERICAN MEETING.

General Osborne, on assuming the Chair, addressed the meeting as follows:

Death is,at all times, a sad event. When good men die, the people mourn. When friends die, friends bereaved deeply lament their loss.

Garfield, our own great and good Garfield, is dead,and a world weeps. The wire has brought us the sad and mournful news that at last death has stricken the strong man down. He had climbed to the highest round of honour's ladder, to be felled by the hand of a bloody-handed assassin, who has by this vile act robbed our loved nation of its head. In a little while the grave will close over that grand temple wherein dwelt the noble soul who was so shortly ago the chosen Ruler of the Republic. I have thought it fitting that we, children of that glorious land, should meet here and mingle our tears and regrets at the sad loss we have all suffered. For weeks and months we have stood beside that heroic, gentle wife, and those dear friends at the bedside of the stricken Garfield, hoping and praying that this cup of bitterness might pass from us; and the deepest sympathy has gone out from all our hearts, I know, for that aged mother who for fifty years has been battling fearlessly, unfalteringly for her boy-President, for that gentle wife who with unquenchable faith would not relinquish hope. It is over. The end has come, and now we know who was vanquished in that long, terrible battle.

We have no fears for our country. She has had, and in time to come may have again critical periods, but this is not one, and we have only to lament the loss of a man who stood highest among this world's great men.

James A. Garfield went forth from youth into a life that has been governed always by honest convictions of right and duty, doing a grand and noble work until, step by step, he climbed to a position which to Americans is the highest earthly position—the chair of Washington—and in the hearts of his countrymen his memory will be held sacred as that of the Father of his country.

In the absence of the committee on resolutions, Mr W.T. Livingstone addressed the meeting, remarking that the occasion is one of melancholy. The sad event has not been unexpected, but it strikes us with sadness. The feeling of sympathy is universal, coming, not only from our own country, but also, almost as strongly, from our own mother country; and all Americans will appreciate the kind sympathy of Her Majesty, her Royal children, and the Prime Minister of Great Britain, whose kind messages have been read with gratitude by all Americans. Had General Garfield lived, he would have made one of the best Presidents America has ever had, and, could we look into the future, we should see Washington, Lincoln and Garfield crowned with like honor on high.

Rev. J. F. Thompson followed, remarking that there can be no difference of opinion as to the sadness of the event which has called us together, but there is much to cheer us in the fact that there is not, in all the world, a single heart which does not condemn the bloody-handed assassin—not one heart which does not feel the deepest sympathy for the bereaved aged mother, the gentle loving wife and family of the great man who has fallen. This is not always so when Rulers die.

General Garfield was a man whose nature was fully rounded out into perfect proportions. To follow him from his youth, this fact will be proved in all his life. As a youth toiling upward, as a husband, father, son, as a soldier winning his way on the field of battle, as a statesman, whose duties he entered upon at the request of President Lincoln, who saw the power latent in him, in one and all, he showed himself the perfectly rounded character. We join our sorrow with the devoted wife and aged mother, but we rejoice that as Christians we can have the assurance without doubt that he is at rest where no assassin's hand can reach him.

Professor Pressinger, said: We are met on an occasion of peculiar sadness for the purpose of expressing sorrow and sympathy at the sad event which has deprived our country of its great and good President, who was the chosen Ruler of the Land which showed the best results of the best races of Europe, struck down by the hand of an assassin. It is time that such crimes should be stopped by the adoption of adequate measures to prevent their recurrence.

Consul E L Baker in presenting the resolution spoke as follows—

In view of the crime which has filled our hearts and our country with mourning, I know how inadequate these resolutions are to the grief and horror which we feel. These can find no sufficient expression in words.

It is unutterably sad to know that our President—the President of the United States—has fallen by the hand of an assassin. It is sad every way. It is terrible to realize, in the midst of the political quiet and tranquillity which prevail in our beloved country, where only the arts of peace are cultivated, and while prosperity is reaping an abundant harvest all over our broad land—that there was any one—even a madman, so cruel and unrelenting in his madness, as to strike this fiendish blow; and especially, when we consider the gentle, unassuming, kind-hearted man who is the victim: so great, and yet so blameless in his life; so good and so true and so considerate in his dealings with men; so amiable and tender in his family; so full of sympathy for others; so overflowing with all gentleness and humanity; so possessed of the confidence of the people; so beloved by all classes and conditions of men; so derseving of that confidence, consideration and respect! The better we came to know him, the more he claimed our admiration; and since his manner of life and his character have been laid bare to the inspection of the world—during all the dark days which succeeded his cruel wounding up to the hour when death released him from his suffering—the more all peoples admired him and sent up prayers for his recovery.

As a man, he was above reproach. As a citizen, he loved and took a pride in his country. As a scholar and man of letters, he had accomplishments of the higher order. As a Christian statesman, he stood in the first rank. As an orator he was gifted in an extraordinary degree. As a soldier, his name is emblazoned among the bravest and best in our land. As a legislator, the records of Congress and the Statutes of the country herald his wisdom and justice. As a ruler, he possessed a moderation and executive ability which gave promise of a most successful administration. Such a man, was our poor dead President! for whom to-day our tears are falling, and our hearts are heavy with woe!

While he still lived, the civilized world watched with deepest sympathy the daily tidings which were sent from his bed of languishing and pain; and gave in return its words of cheer and comfort to his stricken family. And now, that the worst is over, the echoes of his funeral knell are vibrating from continent to continent. The nations of the earth, with that fraternity which makes all peoples one at heart, join in the general grief. But at home, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from St. Lawrence to the Gulf of Mexico, the spectacle must be sorrowful indeed! Fifty millions of people bowing themselves in the dust! Fifty millions of people, without regard to politics, or party affiliations, or social position, after nearly 3 months of agony and suspense, uniting in their prayers for God's mercy on our stricken country, and his blessing on the sorely afflicted family!

It is not strange that we, far away in this foreign land, but thrilled with an abiding love and affection for our native country, and sensitive to everything which concerns its welfare, should take up the wail of woe and join our sorrow with theirs.

In the midst of our grief, however, there is one thing which we should not forget. Terrible as is the crime which has been committed, and deep as is our mortification that such a crime could have been prepetrated in our country, it is something to know, that it was only the frenzy of a single, unassisted madman or fiend.

There is no political significance in the foul deed. There was no conspiracy against the Government. There was no conspiracy against the life of the President. No one but the miserable wretch who committed the act is responsible for the crime. It is humiliating to know that there was even one man so wicked, and seeking such infamous notoriety as to have compassed so cruel a murder; but it is something to know that the nation lives and will live; that the machinery of Government, which has made us a great Republic, will go on unchecked, and that, though the good Lord scourge and afflict us thus sorely, it must be for some great end which we cannot see or understand, but which, perhaps, will be made plain in the unfolding of His providence. The nation still lives. The assassin's hand was not strong enough, even for a moment, to affect that, and the reins of Government succeed to the hands of a tried and accomplished statesman, who has the honour and glory of his country nearest to his heart, and the generous confidence and best wishes of the people in his sad hour to sustain him. Under his watchful care and guidance the United States of America will continue to move onward in their march of peaceful conquest and empire. This is our confidence and this is our consolation as we mourn to-day.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Consul E. L. Baker then read the following telegram addressed to him by the State Department at Washington, under date of August 1st:—

"Referring to your despatch, number 438, in which you state that the feeling existing in Buenos Aires, regarding the attempt upon the President, is one of horror of the crime and sympathy for the sufferer, I have to say that this evidence of friendly interest coming from such a distant Republic is especially gratifying to the President, and he asks that his thanks be returned to those who have so feelingly expressed the hope of his rapid recovery."
